

Eco-labels
	Forest Stewardship Council® is an independent, non-governmental, not for profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. A product that bears the FSC label, is a product that was made from responsibly managed forests, both environmentally and socially. More info: https://us.fsc.org/
	The Programme for the Endorsement of Forest Certification is an international, non-profit, non-governmental organization which promotes sustainable forest management through independent third party certification. The PEFC label helps consumers identify products originating from sustainably managed forests. More info: https://www.pefc.org/
	The Global Organic Textile Standard (GOTS) is a recognised standard for textiles made from organic fibres. It defines environmental and social criteria along the entire organic textiles supply chain. The GOTS label assures that a textile product contains a minimum of 70% organic fibres. More info: www.global-standard.org
	The STANDARD 100 by OEKO-TEX® is a testing and certification system for harmful substances. It can be done in raw, semi-finished, and finished textile products at all processing levels, as well as accessory materials used. The OEKO-TEX label guarantees the absence of problematic substances at each processing stage. More info: www.oeko-tex.com/standard100
	The Nordic Swan Ecolabel (SWAN) is a voluntary, positive ecolabelling of products and services with a common Nordic registered trademark, the Nordic Swan Ecolabel. It's purpose is to give consumers a clear and concise environmental product information, as well as promoting the development of products that are environmentally-sound. More info: www.nordic-ecolabel.org
Allergen-free labels
	The Blue Label is an international allergy label that was founded by the Danish Asthma and Allergy Association. Products which are allowed to use this label, are products which people can rest assured that there is a minimal risk of developing contact dermatitis. More info: www.thebluelabel.eu
	Asthma and Allergy Norway is an association for people with asthma, allergies, eczema and other types of hypersensitivity. Products which are allowed to use this label, are products which people can rest assured that there is a minimal risk of developing contact dermatitis. More info: www.naaf.no
	The Swedish Asthma and Allergy label recommends products that are free from perfume and that do not contain allergens or irritants that are known to cause problems. More info: www.astmaoallergiforbundet.se